"Tracey is the caliber of speaker that I am proud to recognize. She led the group of student leaders effortlessly while empowering them to look at their futures...Even though there were 50+ students in the training room, she was able to make contact with each person by the end of the session. Tracey [took] a genuine interest in the students she was teaching and wanted to provide them with leadership and guidance."

Todd Justesen

Associate Director of Residence Life
Saint Leo University

"I would recommend the programs offered by Tracey Serebin to any organization or school interested in developing their students' character and inner strength. Ms. Tracey Serebin's workshops for both adults and students are professional, interesting and aimed at developing those skills and coping mechanisms necessary for today's challenging social environment."

Sal Tralongo

Principal, Transfiguration Academy

"(She) provided teachers in the High School's Special Education Department with a workshop that was very insightful. I would gladly give my recommendation to Tracey Serebin, as a valuable resource for all educators seeking a qualified presenter in the area of Professional Development."

Joseph P. Cisar

Assistant Supervisor of Special Services,
Passaic High School

"...[H]ow thoroughly impressed I was! She had that audience hanging on her every word -- she was most informative, intuitive, energetic, kind, knowledgeable...one of the most passionate speakers I [have] ever heard!"

EMPOWERING YOUNG PEOPLE™

Tracey T. Serebin

Speaker, Writer, Entrepreneur, Family Dynamics Specialist

Our fast paced society encourages children to rush from one activity to another, without ever slowing down long enough to discover and build their self confidence, empowering skills, and assertiveness. Without these important life skills, young people are inept at handling day to day challenges and therefore begin to exhibit feelings of frustration, anger, anxiety and depression, which can often result in bullying and violence.

As a family coach, writer and motivational speaker, Tracey is able to provide unique, customized, creative approaches to children's problems. For the past decade, Tracey has been listening to the frustrations of young people and has responded to their needs by developing informative, interactive workshops and curriculum that teach kids the tools necessary to empower them throughout their life's journey.

Ms. Serebin is the founder of A Child's Voice, LLC, dedicated to fostering positive interaction between parents, teachers and kids; a Professional Development Provider for the New Jersey State Department of Education; a member of the Holistic Moms Network; and a motivational speaker at parenting, education, and women in business events throughout the country.

Some of Tracey's More Popular Programs - For Kids

USING YOUR VOICE

An engaging anti-bullying workshop that empowers kids to speak up for themselves, to cultivate their inner confidence, and gain awareness of the way words are used. Instead of "not-bullying" as a message this workshop focuses on the positive of respecting themselves and others, compassion towards one another and the differences in people.

INNER STRENGTH TOOLS

A motivational seminar designed to cultivate the inner strength within middle school students. This age is when children are dealing with tremendous changes in their life and without tools for inner strength they can fall victim to negative behaviors. Stories and examples will be shared as several tips are provided to make better choices, discover solutions to problems and deal with peer relationships.

REAL LIFE 101

A fun and engaging workshop that delves into four tools High School students need to master before entering the real world; goal setting, fiscal responsibility (money), relationships and problem solving. Students learn about GaMeRS and how to play to win.

VISIONARY LEADERSHIP

This interactive workshop focuses on discovering and acquiring the qualities of a leader and the ability to motivate people. It is necessary to have a clear vision, believe in that vision, and be able to communicate that vision to others. Some of the most successful entrepreneurs are visionary leaders. Discover what makes them successful.

MAPQUEST FOR LIFE

Armed with a "road map" College Students are guided through exercises to learn more about themselves and assist them in formulating the best path for the future. Most college students think that with a degree in hand they will find the right job, but that is not how life works. This workshop encourages students to flush out their goals and map out their direction to achieve success after college.
